

2010 WateReuse Association Membership Application

Universities, schools, departments and agencies of federal, state, county, and local governments which do not qualify as an Agency/Water Supplier may be enrolled as Division C: Affiliate Members of the WateReuse Association. Each Affiliate Member shall designate a Primary Representative and up to two Alternate Representatives and shall notify WateReuse in writing of the names of its Representatives. These designated Representatives shall continue to represent the Affiliate Member organization until WateReuse receives written notification from the Affiliate Member of a change in its Primary Representative or Alternative Representative(s). Each Affiliate Member has voting privileges in the WateReuse Association and all Affiliate Member Primary and Alternate Representatives may serve as members and officers of committees of WateReuse and the Board of Directors.

Step 5: Remit Dues Payment to the WateReuse Association

Dues are assessed for each calendar year. One full year of dues is paid upon joining and a prorated amount will be assessed for the following year.

Note: The WateReuse Association estimates that 20% of your annual dues will be used to support the Association’s 2010 national and state legislative/regulatory program. Pursuant to the 1993 Federal Tax Act, that portion of your 2010 annual WateReuse Association dues will therefore be considered nondeductible for income tax purposes.
