

WaterReuse Connect
and

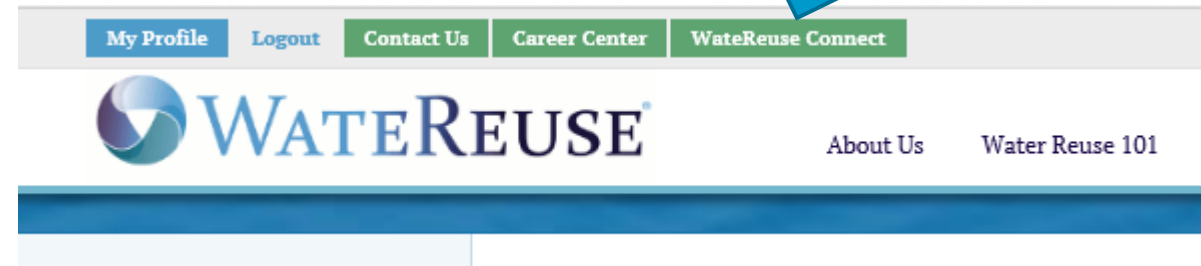

WaterReuse Review

VALUABLE MEMBER RESOURCES FROM WATEREUSE ASSOCIATION

WaterReuse Connect is an open forum to connect with other water professionals worldwide

Available to all employees of member organizations using your existing WaterReuse username and password

Public agencies,
consultants and researchers are actively sharing experiences, links to resources, and additional connections

STAFFING FOR AWPf ?

DISCUSSION POST

Hi all, Curious what the staffing plan...staffing should be? If you could give your...other support staff, etc. for what you think...staff you have for your facility and what

RE: PUBLIC OUTREACH FOR POTABLE REUSE PILOT

DISCUSSION REPLY

that water is monitored between steps

RE: NON-POTABLE REUSE AND TDS

DISCUSSION REPLY

help offset the high sodium found in well...well as parks and highway medians in the

RE: RECYCLED WATER SIGNS THAT INFORM WITHOUT ALARMING

DISCUSSION REPLY

water in rivers for fish and people, etc

WaterReuse Review is a weekly newsletter for members of the WaterReuse Association

Washington Update

Government Nears Shutdown; Water Infrastructure Funding at Risk
As Congress struggles to reach agreement on a budget, communities must wait to receive financing for water infrastructure projects.

Administration's Infrastructure Plan Anticipates Increased Investment
The proposal is expected to emphasize investment in infrastructure projects, which WRA believes are critical for water reuse.

Senate Starts Work on the 2018 Water Resources Act
The Senate Environment and Public Works Committee has begun work on reauthorizing the Water Resources Act.

Department of Interior Announces Major Reorganization
The proposed plan would move tens of thousands of employees to create 13 multi-state regions, but congressional action is needed.

EPA Releases 2017 Potable Reuse Compliance Report
EPA released its 2017 Potable Reuse Compliance Report, a technical compilation of the current state of potable reuse in the U.S.

Read Full Issue ->

State Updates and Member Spotlight

Welcome New Members!

The WaterReuse Association welcomes the following new members:

- Albuquerque Bernalillo County Water Utility Authority
- Athens-Clarke County Public Utilities
- City of Atlanta Department of Watershed Management
- City of Paso Robles
- Ironhouse Sanitary District
- Lamb Weston

AZ: New Rules Allow Direct Potable Reuse in AZ

As of January 1, Arizona utilities can pursue direct potable reuse following the first update to AZ reuse regulations since 2001. Read More

CA: City of Modesto Supplies Recycled Water to Farmers

A partnership of the cities of Modesto, Turlock and Ceres, the Delta Water District and Stanislaus County provides water to farmers. Read More

CO: WaterReuse Colorado Elects New Leadership

WaterReuse Colorado recently elected new officers including Allan of Stantec as President and Jason Assouline of CH2M as Secretary. Read More

TX: City of Wichita Falls IPR Project Substantially Complete

The City of Wichita Falls, TX has completed a $30 million IPR project that replaces a groundbreaking temporary DPR project. Read More

Read Full Issue ->

*Send member news to zdorsey@waterreuse.org

Conferences and Events

Webcast: Building Community Confidence in Potable Reuse

Join us on January 25 at 2 p.m. eastern for a presentation on a WE&RF study focused on developing stronger risk analysis to build community confidence in potable reuse. Learn More

WRA to Host Workshop at 2018 Membrane Technology Conference

On March 12 in Palm Beach, FL, WRA will present the "Membranes in Action in Water Reuse" workshop showcasing model reuse programs. Learn More

Upcoming Events

International Symposium on Potable Reuse

Austin, Texas
January 22-23, 2018

Webcast: Building Community Confidence in Potable Reuse Through Stronger Risk Analysis

January 25, 2018

Webcast: From Yuck to Yum: Turning Recycled Water Into Craft Beer

February 14, 2018

2018 Membrane Technology Conference & Exposition

Palm Beach, Florida
March 12-16, 2018

2018 WaterReuse California Annual Conference

Monterey, California
March 25-27, 2018

Water Week 2018

Washington, DC
April 15-21, 2018

WateReuse
Review strives to enhance member updates to better engage and connect members nationwide

State Updates and Member Spotlight

Welcome New Members!

The WateReuse Association welcomes the following new members:

- Albuquerque Bernalillo County Water Utility Authority
- Athens-Clarke County Public Utilities
- City of Atlanta Department of Watershed Management
- City of Paso Robles
- Ironhouse Sanitary District
- Lamb Weston

AZ: New Rules Allow Direct Potable Reuse in AZ

As of January 1, Arizona utilities can pursue direct potable reuse projects following the first update to AZ reuse regulations since 2001. Read More.

CA: City of Modesto Supplies Recycled Water to Farmers

A partnership of the cities of Modesto, Turlock and Ceres, the Del Puerto Water District and Stanislaus County provides water to farmers. Read More.

CO: WateReuse Colorado Elects New Leadership

WateReuse Colorado recently elected new officers including Allegra da Silva

Submitting links
to local articles,
websites or press
releases are a simple way to share our Inland Empire stories

About Us | Contact Us | Subscribe | Advertise | Printing

Welcome! Login | Signup

westsideconnect.com
The West Side Index & Gustine Press-Standard

west side
index
GUSTINE
PRESS-STANDARD

54°

Search this site...

Home News Community Sports Opinion Obituaries Announcements Photo Gallery Marketplace Classifieds Circulars

Local Expertise, Professional Results. 209.862.3232

“Buy & Sell With A Professional”
Jared Amaral 209.495.1792

Home News Local News

Recycled water flowing to Del Puerto district ag customers

Story Comments

Print Font Size

Recommend 0 Tweet G+ Pinit 0 Share 0

Posted: Thursday, January 11, 2018 10:15 am

A new source of irrigation water is finding its way to the West Side.

Treated wastewater from the city of Modesto is flowing through a new pipeline and ultimately to the Del Puerto Water District, where it will be recycled for use by farmers who saw their supply of irrigation water evaporate during the depths of California's drought years.

The water is being delivered through the North Valley Regional Recycled Water Program, which will deliver water to the Del Puerto district for irrigation use in fields.

Water Irrigation Healthcare Tax Reform Climate

JEFF DENHAM
Primary Serving California's 16th Congressional District

CLICK HERE TO TAKE MY SURVEY

WHAT ARE YOUR PRIORITIES FOR THE CENTRAL VALLEY?

Border Security Energy Budget Defense Spending Economy Immigration National Debt 2nd Amendment Agriculture Trade Veterans Water Reform Climate

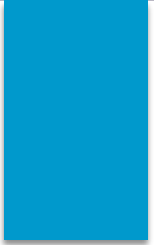

JEFF DENHAM
@REPJEFFDENHAM

Your Hometown Pharmacy!

Pioneer DRUG STORES

FREE DELIVERY
MOST INSURANCE ACCEPTED
LARGE SELECTION OF GIFTS
UTILITY PAY STATION

CLICK TO VIEW OUR IN-STORE SPECIALS

Submissions are due Wednesday
COB each week
for Friday publication

Send written articles (2-3 paragraphs) or a short paragraph introducing a linked page to:

Zachary Dorsey
Director of Communications
WateReuse
571.445.5503
zdorsey@watereuse.org

Member Highlights for 2018

